

Heather Forest

Musical Storytelling Concert

Heather Forest is a modern-day bard. Her storytelling performances are a fusion of poetry, prose, original melody, guitar, and the sung and spoken word. Heather Forest brings elegance, wit, and drama to classic tales from the treasury of world folklore. The comedy and pathos of point of view, the mysteries of womenfolk, the trickster, the fool, quests, and journeys are colorful threads on this masterful teller's loom of ancient tales. Her storytelling concerts offer listeners a delightful journey into the realm of imagination.

"Heather Forest creates a living fantasy. The audience was enchanted. Her considerable talents go far beyond the usual ideas of storytelling. This woman has a magic which flows out to touch her audience in their hearts."

*Town & Country News
Watertown, NY*

"A true troubadour... even the narrative parts of her storytelling seem to be sung; her delivery is so precise and compelling, she just draws one into her spell. Her stories are lovely, magical things and her singing voice is true, simple, and unadorned."

Martha's Vineyard Times, MA

About the Artist

Heather Forest has shared her repertoire of world tales for the past forty years with audiences in theatres, conferences, and storytelling festivals throughout the United States and abroad. A multiple award-winning author and recording artist, she has published three folktale anthologies, seven children's picture books, and eight audio recordings of musical storytelling. She has been featured ten times at the National Storytelling Festival and is a recipient of the Circle of Excellence Award from the National Storytelling Network. Recent concert appearances include The Power of Words Conference at Goddard College, Vt., the John C. Campbell Folk School, N.C., and The National Storytelling Center, TN.

For Booking Information Contact:
Heather Forest, Ph.D.
Story Arts Inc.
PO Box 354
Huntington, NY 11743
631-271-2511 heather@storyarts.org